Investor Certification

I hereby acknowledge receipt of the Offering Circular dated April 1, 2020, of Converge Cornerstone Fund. I represent that I am 18 years of age or older. I further represent that I am a member of, contributor to, or participant in Converge, or a beneficiary or successor in interest to such person. I agree that I will not sell my certificate within 12 months after the date of purchase, except in accordance with Pennsylvania law. This restriction shall in no manner affect my ability to redeem my certificate in accordance with its terms.

Certification - Under the penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- All information provided is accurate and the number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me).
- I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding.

Certification Instructions - If you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because of underreporting interest or dividends on your tax return, you must cross out item (2) above.

Note: Due to the IRS regulations, the Fund cannot issue your certificate until your taxpayer identification number is provided and the above certification signed. Additionally, in accordance with the US Patriot Act, the Converge Cornerstone Fund is required to verify the identity of any person or entity seeking to open an account. When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask for a copy of your driver's license or other identifying documents. We will use this information to confirm the identity reported on an investment application with a third party public records database.
